In presenting the above ticket to the voter of the 17th Ward, the Committee would earnestly impress upon them the need of a full and intelligent vote. Whigs and Democrats, and still further impressed that in their nominating the Committee have acted in strict conformity to the principles of the Free Soil Movement, and that they have selected such men as are entitled to their votes. In the great and honorable efforts of City Reform, Our city, fellow citizens, has too long been under the signs of apathy and political indifference, and we need only call to mind the names of those who have come forth in your name to show the world that in future New York City shall be governed by intelligent and honest men, capable of fulfilling the trust committed to them, and making the city become an honor to the country instead of a disgrace.

To Inventors, Patentees, Publishers, Teachers, Manufacturers of Improved Farming Implements, Wholesale Dealers, &c. &c.—THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now enlarged to the size of the Daily, and having over 10,000 regular subscribers in all the States in the Union—is constantly and rapidly increasing—devotes a limited portion of its space to Advertisements calculated to be useful and interesting to readers. We believe no other advertising medium of equal expense and value does or ever did exist in this or any other city. Its wide columns, fair type and firm, white paper (the same as those of our Daily and Semi-Weekly editions) with the large amount of reading matter and the limited space devoted to Advertising, combine to give it unrivaled advantages for announcements of universal interest.

TELEGRAMS.—Thirty cents per line, or three cents per word, for each message, payable always in advance. No advertisement inserted for less than $1. No deduction on account of length; nor short stories are advertised.

Advertisements in the Weekly.—Ten cents per line, or three cents per word, for each insertion, payable always in advance. No advertisement inserted for less than $1. No deduction on account of length; nor short stories are advertised.
